CSE 403 ACalendar Use Cases

• Group Members:

Qinrong Lin (snailin@cs.washington.edu)

Qun Zhang (zq0605@cs.washington.edu)

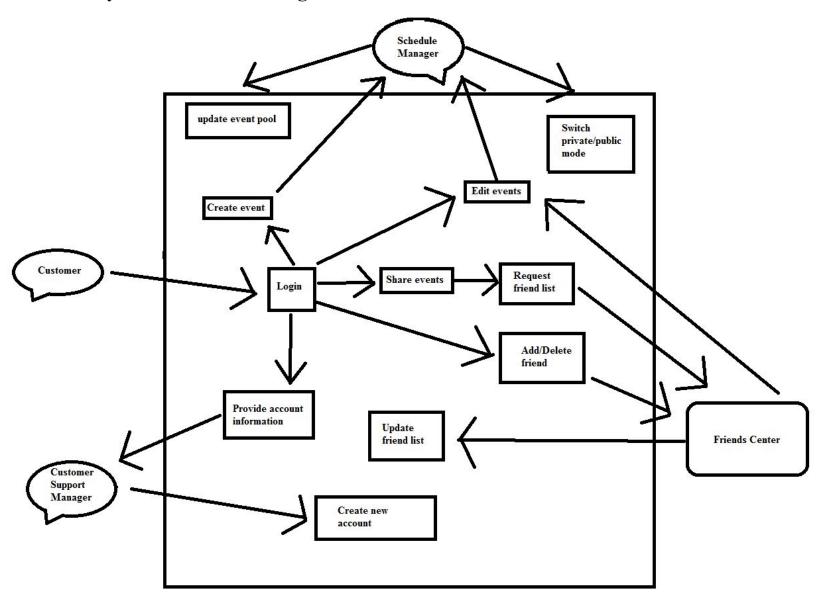

Ruoyu Mo (rettymoo@cs.washington.edu)

Tong Shen (shent3@cs.washington.edu)

Zhengyang Gao (gaoz6@cs.washington.edu)

Ziyao Huang (ziyaoh@cs.washington.edu)

System Level Cases Diagram

User login:

- 1. User uses the side navigation menu to choose login as a registered user
- 2. Login interface pop up
- 3. User enters the username and password into the text field
- 4. User presses the login button at the bottom of the page
- 5. System verifies user, and loads his/her recent event into the calendar page

Extensions: Invalid Username/Password:

- 5a. Username and password doesn't match.
 - 5a1. UI stays in login page
 - 5a2. Prompt error message

Include: Create account by given user information

Create a multi-user event:

- 1. After login, user click on a date, then a plus sign is provided on the UI to create an event
- 2. Click on the plus
- 3. Pop up window shows basic information input field about an event.
- 4. User provide basic info about this event(date, title, place, repeat or not, participants, public/private, etc).
- 5. Submit event by clicking 'submit', then event is saved on user's calendar Include:For public events, all participants can edit the event; for private events, all participants can edit.

Update event:

- 1. Click on an event which the user has permission edit
- 2. Switch to edit mode
- 3. Update info field by typing a new info
- 4. Click 'share' to generate url that let other users join this event. Invited users receive notification about this event
- 5. Share url by email or other social media
- 6. New info shown on event info
- 7. Related users receive notification

Extensions: No edit permission:

- 3a. Prompt error message
 - 3a1. UI stays in info page, user cannot edit event

Alternative: Cancel changes

4. Discard changes by clicking 'back' button

Search and join public events:

- 1. Click on plus sign to add new events, select search public events
- 2. App shows a map with pings where each ping is an event
- 3. Click filter, to change filter to search for different events, then apply filter
- 4. Click on an event to see detail information
- 5. View other participants' post on this event
- 6. Click on "I'm in." to save this event to user's calendar

Alternative:

6a. Return to map page, discard adding joining new public event 6a1. Public events not added to calendar page